foreword

"The joys we share together here"

This truly is the spirit of our Harding. Yes, we've had our downfalls, but they have bound us closer and made us appreciate the joys to the fullest. So many times we have complained about being overworked, but these are the things which will make our memories.

In this, the 1958 ACORN, we have attempted to present a small account of the joys we share at this, our Harding.

we honor

To a teacher who in three short years has filled to near perfection a position which has been disregarded in the past;

To an adviser who has been a constant inspiration and guide;

To a friend whose willingness to help has imprinted every mind with a never-fading memory;

To MR. LAMARR BRIGMAN we, the seniors, dedicate with deep appreciation this, our 1958 ACORN

senior class history

Upon entering Harding in 1952, as we looked at the seemingly impossible tasks ahead, we, the seniors of 1958, felt as awed as if we were responsible for the construction of a six-story building. Indeed that very year we were laying our foundation as we became acquainted with our new environment—our teachers, the classrooms, the halls, and our classmates. To guide us through this basic year, Andy Johnson and Sue Williams were elected as our seventh grade presidents for the first and second semesters respectively. Our first story was now prepared, and we began to realize that a building can shoot upward rapidly.

During our second year at Harding, the class of 1958 began to be a real part of a place already loved. Jerry Lingerfelt and Mike Finger as our presidents supervised the building of our own second story; and we looked upward to the half-way mark—the ninth grade.

In that important top year of the junior high school, Ann Marsh was our building-planner for both semesters; and Ann Sadler and Mike Finger headed the Junior Student Council as presidents. The Junior Rams, having led us through a victorious year to the City Championship for 1954, were honored at a banquet given by the Junior Honor Society, led by Sue Williams. The third tier was completed, and construction on the important fourth year was begun.

Senior high school at last, and still climbing! Our sophomore year brought harder work, more responsibility, and added memories. Our structure was becoming more complicated; but Ann Sadler and Sue Williams as class presidents guided us successfully through the year. Proudly we saw thirty-one of our classmates tapped into the National Senior Honor Society; a "Beauty" and a "Cutie" were chosen—Karen Butler and Gail Porter; and we advanced to the fifth floor.

As we entered our junior year, we knew that our edifice was well on its way to completion. Under the leadership of our two presidents, Mike Finger and Sue Williams, we had a full and memorable year. With the theme, "Oriental Gardens," our long awaited Junior-Senior was a success at Park Center. Ann Sadler as chief marshal and Ann Marsh as assistant chief headed the Junior Marshals. Honored as Imperatores on Maroon and Gold Day were nine of our classmates. Senior rings were ordered. Steadily we were climbing to the top story.

Now, seniors at last, our structure was a reality. Sue Williams, class president for both semesters, was to lead the dedication ceremonies. Jennie Lee Satterfield and Richard Helms, our Student Council presidents, were real executives as they led the entire school. Sue Williams, editor-in-chief, and Alice Griffin, assistant editor, that year produced our school paper, the Hi-Lites. Our yearbook, the ACORN, edited by Ann Marsh and managed by Richard Helms, was planned to give us a lasting picture of all that had been involved in our beloved building program. The senior production, "The Skeleton Walks," provided one lasting memory. The double honor of D.A.R. winner and "Miss Hi Miss" went to Jennie Lee Satterfield. The Key Club, with president Andy Johnson, helped to put out a school directory which was distributed to all students in the city. Chosen as class beauty was Gail Porter; and Willena Drane, head cheerleader, represented the football team as Gridiron Queen. Always looking forward to graduation, we elected the following as Class Night officers: Sue Williams, Valedictorian and Prophet; Dickie Blackwell, Salutatorian; Jane Parr Hicks, Poet; Richard Helms, Lawyer; Ann Sadler, Historian; and Ann Marsh and Alice Griffin, Giftorians. The class trip, Junior-Senior, Class Night, Baccalaureate, and the thrill of graduation just ahead climaxed six years of work and pleasure on a building that was now completed.

Yet not completed—only begun. Whatever we do and wherever we go, we will continually add to the stature of both our six-story building and ourselves, cherishing always the memories of its beginnings at our beloved Alma Mater, Harding High School.

senior class prophecy

Moon, 1975-(MP)-(that's Moonshine Press to you, earthling)—News has just been received here concerning a pressing need on earth for any leads to the whereabouts and activities of certain members of the Harding High School class of 1958. Always happy to oblige (especially for a reward), your reporter has just returned from a hasty Fitzenstrinkal trip around moon. (This Fitzenstrinkal, by the way, is a new push-button, ever-ready, person deliverer designed and perfected by Dr. Dickie Blackwell, Dr. Alan Bagully, and Prof. R. T. Mayfield.) The results of this investigation have proved rewarding statistically, if not financially.

Even before leaving the Moonshiner building, this reporter met one Alice Griffin, first and smallest lady publisher on the moon, coming in from lunch. With her were Woody Cooper, dean of Good Humor Men; Dan Wynn, business tycoon and owner of the "Win with Wynn" er, ah, establishments; and Gail Rozzelle, noted columnist of the syndicated publication, "Gail's Gift of Gab."

One thousand miles away, but only a hop, skip, and revolution by Fitzenstrinkal, is the city hospital, Moon's Moan. Operated jointly by Dr. Jennie Lee Satterfield and Dr. Patricia Christenbury, it houses such outstanding members of the medical world as Ann Sadler, Loretta Rogers, Donnalene Taylor, Mary Neely, Judy Wallace, and Ann Marshian, an exchange student.

The public library, operated by Becky Biggers and Harriet Hall, afforded another place to discover earth transplants. In the novel category, your reporter found As You Laugh It by Mahaley and Smith; Beauty Is My Business by Gail Porter; Gentlemen Prefer Redheads by Aiken, Elliott, and Clodfelter; To See or Not To See by Anne Huffstetler; and Tableside Tales by Marvin Knight Chaucer. The poetry section also offered familiar names. James Hicks, foremost poet of the moon, occupies most of the shelf, along with Darrell Williams, author of the much-discussed collection, Memoirs of the B & B.

These works were not the only ones found to be written by former Hardingites. Geometry or Bust by Pegram and Smith, The Easy Way Out by D. C. Drake, and the thought-provoking philosophy, A Gripe a Day Keeps the Doctor Away by Deanna Merrell also grace the shelves of Knowledge.

Leaving the library, this reporter barely missed being run over by Sandra King's Atomic Taxi. Surviving the accident, we continued in our Fitzenstrinkal to the landing station of the H.H.H. (Helms, Helms, and Helms) Inter-Everywhere-Missile Service. Although the Fitzenstrinkal is fast becoming a heavy favorite over the missile, we did find a few workers on the job. Billy Gwinn and Bobby Mouchet misguide on the two favorite H.H.H. missiles. Atomic fuel is obtained by a merc Moose call, while Douglas Bivens and Shelton Shorter work day and night bringing the good old H.H.H. missiles up to Fitzenstrinkal standards. Wayne Christenbury is publicity director. (Awright, so they're trying to increase sales!)

The social season is currently in full swing on the moon, and the party giver of party givers, Elsa Maxwell Akin, is busier than ever. Last night the biggest party of the year was given at the Propst Plaza. The "Moonglows," under the direction of Maestro David Mitchell, provided the music while guests eagerly applauded crooner John Lindsay's rendition of "S'moon's Swoon."

Linda Wright, moon's best dressed woman in 1975, was stunning in her sackful sack evening dress of cloudy-star mooncron material. Margo Black, Mr. Moon of 1975, attracted the gentle attention of socialites Becky Collins, prominent diamond-collector; Shelby Flowers and Carolyn Greason, men-collectors; and Nancy Hoyle, who thought she was at the other big party being given next door by Jeannette Vaillancourt. Glenn Rogers, Tommy Cashion, and Reggie Garmon were surrounded by feminine fashions, while Bobby Green helped the hostess entertain.

The cultured set is not without its share of Harding talent. Last week Bill Martin, moonrenowned violinist, appeared in concert with Nancy Jo Queen, who finally rode her 'cello to the moon. One seat in the hall was vacant because of the moon premier of Irwin Place, a startling drama starring Willette Dickerson, Arnold Jenkins, and Ozzie Hough. The success was produced and directed by Vance Lippard and Jimmy Eury.

Television hires some of the most loved teams and personalities in the business. "Jane and Raymond," a comedy team, led the OIC Television Network. Vickie Ennis, long-time star of stage and screen, is most popular on color T.V.

Jesse Reich, quizmaster of the new show, "I Can't, Can You?" last week gave away $64,000 to each contestant on his show. This week he doesn't have a show. A newer show, "You Bet Your Wife," with Tommy Snyder as emcee, has just begun with Jerry Wadsworth, Darrel Russo, and Raymond Prim as first victims.

Juvelle Pruett, Barbara Robinson, and Gwen Gardner wow the crowds each night at the "Miami over the Moon" night club. Carol Hendrix and Barbara Stewart kick nightly with the "Sputniks," a modernized version of the out-dated "Rockettes."

Now, back to a report on the average earth people on the moon. In the business world, Jan Habenicht, Benny Falls, and Joe Marsh have just bought joint stock on the Whitlow Moon Mining Co. Jimmy Ferrell, Ray Garren, and Olin Giles head the board of trustees of Consolidated Mars Natural Gas Co. Dickie Ammons, George Hancock, and Randy Hinkle are presidents of the Moonwatch. Moon-overia, and Crater National Banks respectively. Melvin Barnhardt runs a chain of dance studios, "Barnhardt's Barns." Clara Gallant and Nancy Black run the "Stuffer" Reducing Salons. Miller Art Studio (run by Kelly and managed by Nancy). McCorkle Publishing Co., Jones Wrecking Crew, and Shankle-Schenck Realty Co. are other reputable enterprises. Cobb's Insurance, Hendrix Super Markets, and Posey's Flower Shop round out the list except for Linda James' Forestry Service. (Don't know why she's interested in wood!)

The secretaries and statisticians cannot be forgotten, however. Compton's Encyclopedia Co. hires Mary Norwood and Linda Hargett. Gaye Severs, Glenda Watson, Binnie Mulligan, Kay McIver, and Kay Marlowe are all employed at the Skyway Disintegration Co. Jimmy Julian and Pearson Best are the office managers in the same company. Joyce Bumgarner, Emily Braley, Inez Elder, and Nancy Christenbury are personal secretaries to the mayor of Greencheeseville, Ralph Phifer. Bobbie Hoover is the official statistician for the Earthwatchers' Club.

Teachers on the moon are simply out of this world. Sandra Snyder, Annette Bullard, Helen Hodges, and Helen Pence teach something, we know not what! Loretta Stalls teaches driving.

The Greencheeseville Monsters, football team, had an astounding record this year of 11-0 . . . not a single win! Stars are Gary Whitley, Jerry Williams, Mike Finger, Don Duncan, and Ronald Hardman, managed by Frank Watkins and captained by Al Wingate. Beautiful Willena Drane was crowned Mooncoming Queen this season.

Noted sports columnist, Bobby Shaffner, tells us that this year's basketball team has really gone against gravity. Jimmy Green and Andy Johnson are co-captains. Coach Johnny McManus finally persuaded Jack McAllister, Larry Entekin, Jimmy Bagwell, and Jerry Burns to use the good old 108 technique in rescuing the squad.

Rebecca Williams captains the Feline Flitters, girls' basketball team. Sarah Bennett and Ann Ducker are star forwards.

A few fugitives could not be located due to technical difficulties. You see, the precious Fitzenstrinkal, uh, had an accident. As a matter of fact, it blew up! At last report, the three originators had been shipped to lower Pluto and the eminent Dr. Kathleen Rhoads had been sent for to patch things up again.

All this does us little good, however, for we stayed with our Fitzenstrinkal to the bitter end . . . The hospital bill comes to approximately $3,984,173.41. Please forward along with the reward money as soon as possible!

SOLDYA WHATSHESAW, Ace Reporter
Greencheeseville Moonshiner

last will and testament

We, the Senior class of Harding High School, in the city of Charlotte, county of Mecklenburg, state of North Carolina, having passed our term papers and squeezed through exams, do leave, and leave this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Hawkins and Mrs. Mackey, we leave next year's seniors to antagonize them as much, and possibly more, than we have, and our appreciation for their guidance.

To Mrs. Sawyer and Mrs. Stiwalt, we leave a fresh supply of erasers, admit slips, receipts, and nerves.

To the rising seniors we leave our tremendous problem of securing ads for the ACORN and the Hi-Lites, our research themes, and our senior expenses (in hopes that they may be able to pay the debts that we forgot about).

To the individuals we bequeath the following:

I, Sue Williams, do hereby leave my love for Harding to Pam Worley, my superlative "Most Intelligent" to Beth Clinkscales, and my ability to do fifty-even things at once and still hear the latest jokes from Woody Cooper to anyone who wants to lose her mind in her senior year.

I, Kathleen Rhoads, will my position as librarian of the band to next year's bell players, and hope they enjoy rummaging in dirty boxes as much as I have.

I, Stephen Whitlow, being of sound mind but in a weak and lowly condition, do will my love and knowledge of books to anyone who has a "geode" (a hollow rock) for a head.

I, Judy Wallace, will my love for school to anyone crazy enough to like it.

I, Alice Griffin, being of sound mind and . . . well, I, Alice Griffin, leave my seat in Shorthand to anyone who can fill it, because I couldn't. Tradition being what it is, I will my superlative, "Most Original," to my little brother, David. Lastly, I will my position of Co-Giftorian to anyone willing to Christmas shop for the senior class in May.

I, Harriet Hall, leave my luck to graduate to Richard Ingram, whom I am sure will not need it.

I, Tommy Hendrix, leave my good luck that enables me to meet a wonderful girl like Jennie Lee Satterfield to share my good times, to any junior.

I, Raymond Query, will my superlative, "Wittiest," to Richard Melton.

I, John McManus, do will my rotten pair of gym shoes to anyone who can stand to smell them.

I, Jerry Burns, will my seats in D.E. to any Junior that think they can fill them.

I, Jack McAllister, do hereby will my seat in English to Pat Norman.

I, Nancy Jo Hoyle, hereby will my front seat in Mrs. Rhodes first period English class to any upcoming senior who can sit there as long as I have and not get kicked out.

I, Sandra Snyder, do hereby will my ability to graduate to my brother Tommy (I think).

I, Nancy Jo Queen, will my superlative "Most Talented" to any 'cello student who enjoys lugging books and 'cello to and from school every day for four years.

I, Loretta Stalls, hereby will my ability to have fun in English and still pass at the same time to any junior who thinks they can do the same.

I, Olin Giles, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my seat in Miss Watson's classes to my brother Billy and hope he can do better.

I, Jane Parr Hicks, leave Harding, with all my fondest memories, to the next Parr in line.

I, Gail Rozzelle, being of sound mind and body will to Bessie Panos my seat in twelfth grade English. (Hope you can make it.)

I, David Mitchell, will my drum-major job to Pete Williams.

I, Jane Huggins, do hereby will my superlative "Most Athletic" to Pat Williams, and my love for the gym to Trish Frye and Judy Blackwood.

I, Shelby Jean Flowers, hereby will to my brother, John, my seat in Mrs. Rhodes first period English class, hoping that he will accomplish more than I have.

I, Shirley Elliott, hereby will to my sister, Mary, my seat in first period Home Nursing, hoping she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Dan Wynn, will my superlative "Most Likely to Succeed" to anyone who would be as proud of it as I am.

I, Kay Marlowe, do hereby will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes twelfth grade English class to Edgar Curtis in hopes that he does better than I.

I, Sylvia Lominac, do hereby will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes twelfth grade English class to my brother, Johnny.

I, Ruth McCorkle, hereby will my ability to eat lunch every day with my boyfriend and still get to work on time to any upcoming "speedo."

I, Rebecca Williams, hereby will my position as captain of the Senior Girls Basketball team to anyone the team feels is worthy of the position.

I, Helen Hodges, leave my favorite seat in the cafeteria to my sister Susan, in hopes that she has as much fun sitting there as I did.

I, Brian Hood, came with nothing, leave with nothing, and I hereby will nothing.

I, Arnold Jenkins, do hereby leave my place on the hall steps for anyone else who does not do all their history at home.

I, Annette Bullard, leave my love for Harding to my sister, Barbara.

I, Charles Butler, hereby will my seat in Miss Hartness' class to Neil Beach.

I, Charles Gayle, do hereby will my seat in D.E. II to "Rock" Simmons or "Haskel" Carter.

I, Mary Neely, leave my duties as secretary of fourth period Science Club to anyone that wants it.

I, Ann Marsh, do will to Becky Elam the ACORN and the accompanying shattered nerves, to Pam Worley my superlative "Most Likely to Succeed," and to Beth Mayhew my ability to know everything about everybody except myself.

I, Carolyn Lee Greason, being of sound mind and able body, will my nickname "Greasy" to anyone who can withstand it five years as I have, and to Phoebe Stroupe, I give my well-worn shorthand book and my love for Mrs. Smith.

I, Linda Jenkins, will my place in the office to Sylvia Miles.

I, Donnalene Taylor, leave my ability to grow fingernails to Linda White, in hopes that she too can survive French without losing any of them.

I, James Howell, do not will anything because I will need all my resources to survive at U. N. C.

I, Joe Forbes, leave my seat in English to anyone who wants it.

I, Raymond Prim, leave all my books to Harding, and hope the pupils who get them do better than I did.

I, Barbara Ann Stewart, do hereby will my superlative "Cutest" and my majorette uniform to Billie Faye Barbour.

I, Roger Reynolds, do hereby will my ability to face up to two math classes for a whole year to George Stratton.

I, "Fat" Green, will my nickname to any fat upcoming junior.

I, Roy Knight, being of crazed mind and sound body do will my seat in Miss Watson's home room and my seat in Mrs. Rhodes' English class to my brother, David.

I, Willette Dickerson, being of sound mind and body (?) do hereby and therefore will my brain (?) to Manson Case, who has not the slightest need for it, my part in the senior play to Becky Elam, and last but certainly not least, my seat (second row, fifth seat) in homeroom 208 to any rising eighth grader who feels that he or she can fill it faithfully for five years.

I, Patricia Christenbury, do will my chair in physics to anyone who is willing to fail physics.

I, Mary Helen Pence, will my ability to go steady with the same boy for two years and become engaged in my senior year to Ginger Lindsay and Kay Biggerstaff and my ability to get up at 7:45 and make it to school by 8:00 to JoAnne O'Shields.

I, Jane Bristow, will my seat in the library to my sister, Linda.

I, Jimmy Julian, will my seat in Miss Hartness' English class to anyone who has the ability to make good speeches.

I, Phil Helms, will my ability to sit in Miss Watson's class on the front seat and not get rattled to my younger brother, Dean.

I, Carol Clodfelter, will my ability to get the absentee list out second period to anyone who wants it.

I, Reggie Garmon, leave my place on the bench in sports to anybody that is good enough to fulfill it.

I, Jimmy "Chico" Smith, will my nickname "Greek," given to me by "Fat" Green, to Eddie Salem, who can fully live up to that name.

I, Nancy Russell, will my senior year, of a second semester, one class a day, to anyone with courage enough to attend Advance Summer School.

I, Georgianna Eaves, will my seat in home room 108 to Barbara Smith, in home room 105, and my place in the library 5th period to Jackie Smith.

I, Dickie Ammons, will my seat in Miss Hartness's English class to anyone who thinks he can pass.

I, Jerry McGee, do hereby will my seat in Mechanical Drawing to anyone who can use it.

I, Jan Habenicht, do hereby will my ability to be late to the first period class to whomever wants it.

I, Bill Gwinn, do hereby will my chair in D.E. II to anyone who can sit in it.

I, Gaye Severs, will all the fun I've had while at Harding to everyone that can stay six years and still be having fun.

I, Bobbie Hoover, being of reasonably sound body and mind, do hereby will my superlative, "Friendliest," to Becky Elam, and advertising manager of the Hi-Lites to Connie Wilson.

I, JoAnne Martin, will my ability to be engaged my whole senior year and not get married, to Patsy Ann Parker.

I, Jimmy Bagwell, will my old age to Donnie Christenbury, hoping he can finish before I did.

I, Johnny Lindsay, do hereby will my brains to anyone who can use them because they never did me any good.

I, Charlotte Cothran, will anything I have, all except Buddy—and he's mine—to anyone in the upcoming junior class.

I, Binnie Ruth Mulligan, do hereby will my dimples to anyone who likes dimples, and my love for Miss Bell to Delores Fite, who will need it next year.

I, Jeanette Vaillancourt, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my superlative "Most Dependable" and my very beloved place as cheerleader to Patsy Mullis, in hopes that she will be as proud of them as I have been.

I, Phil Cowles, being of sound mind and high spirits, will, with Mrs. Rhodes' permission, just leave.

I, Barbara Akin, hereby will my position as Sr. cheerleader to my sister, Mary Ellen, in hopes that she will be as proud to wear maroon and gold as I was and hope she will make the "B" honor roll before the twelfth grade.

I, Sue Smith, will my position in G. O. P. to my sister, Bennie, in hopes she will have as much fun as I did.

I, Becky Biggers, will to Sarah Bunn, all the fun I had taking Library Science for four years and also, I leave her Mrs. Frickhoeffer, to do with as she sees fit.

I, Tommy Snyder, will my bird calling ability and my nickname (Squid) and my love and affection for "Sarge" Robert O'Dell to Jan Power.

I, Richard Helms, will everything I have gained while at Harding, except Judy Blackwood. I'm going to keep her for myself.

We, Becky Biggers and Sue Mahaley, will our positions as typists for the ACORN to anyone who wants to stay home every night and TYPE! TYPE! TYPE!

We, Dean Helms, Juvelle Pruett, and Carolyn Greason, will to anybody the ability to get a ride at lunch time.

We, Mary Norwood, Juvelle Pruett, and Sue Smith, will to any up and coming senior the ability to be able to stay in the G. O. P. room fifth period and have a ball like we did.

We, Gail Rozzelle, Dean Helms and Sue Smith will to any other three girls who think they can date the same boy at the same time and still remain good friends.

We, Joyce Bumgarner and Helen Hodges, leave our seats in home room to any upcoming eighth grader who has as much fun in it as we did.

We, Becky Biggers, Dean Helms, Juvelle Pruett, Gail Rozzelle and Sue Smith, will to any five girls the ability to give a party in G. O. P. without the class or Mrs. Morris knowing about it.

We, Patricia Christenbury, Nancy Jo Queen, Patsy Swafford, and Willette Dickerson, do hereby will our table in the cafeteria to Raymond Hollifield, Albert Black, Arnold Hagler, and Lorenzo Durham.

We, Gwen Gardner and Patricia Jackson, hereby do will our ability to be cousins for eighteen years and be able to get along so good, to anyone who thinks they could do it.

We, Barbara Smith and Bobby Shaffner, will our seats in Miss Watson's room to any young brain and hope they don't sweat it as much as we did.

We, David Mitchell, Jimmy Alexander, and Alan Bagully, will our magnificent percussion section to: Robert McCallum, Bill Mitchell, Phil Norman, Philip Stegall, and Willie Henderson.

We, Alice Griffin and Sue Williams, leave our griping and editorials to Patsy Mullis in hopes that she has as good a time putting out poor Hi-Lites as we have had.

We, Barbara Akin, Gail Porter, Carol Hendrix, Jane Huggins, Loretta Rogers, Linda James, Bobbie Hoover, Vickie Ennis, Ann Marsh and Anne Huffstetler, will the ability to get fifteen people in our cars without getting a ticket, to haul the old maids around.

We, Barbara Robinson and Gwen Gardner, do hereby will our friendship to Jackie Robinson and Gail Dellinger in hopes that theirs will last as long as ours has.

We, Gwen Gardner and Carolyn Greason, will our ability to be good friends during our senior year and not having a fuss—so far!

We, Charlotte Cothran and Harriet Hall, leave our long friendship to anyone who thinks they can put up with each other as we have.

We, Nancy Jo Hoyle and Dorothy Akins, hereby will our fabulous English grade to Peggy Hilton.

We, Donnalene Taylor and Barbara Robinson, leave our ability to have completely different personalities and still be the best of friends.

We, the members of home room 214, will Mrs. Smith to any upcoming eighth graders lucky enough to get her.

We, Ann Sadler, Becky Collins, and Dwight Christenbury do hereby will our friendship to anybody who can go out every night and still do our homework.

We, "Smitty" and "Pig", will our ability to eat while studying Plane Geometry in second period study hall to Robert Owens (if he wants to take Plane Geometry again next year).

We, Pearson Best and Edgar Cathey, do will our seats in home room 208 to any two people who are fortunate enough to get Miss Watson for a home room teacher.

We, Nancy Hovle, Patsy Simpson, and Mary Norwood, hereby will our ability to copy everybody's homework in Bookkeeping and not get caught, and still pass.

Respectfully Submitted,
RICHARD HELMS, Lawyer

class poem

The hallways, the stairways,
the faces in the crowd,
The rushing, the running,
the shouting out loud.

Mr. Hawkins, Mrs. Sawyer,
all the faculty,
Mr. Boggs, the maids,
and Mrs. Godfrey.

The pep rallies, the football games,
basketball, baseball too,
Coaches, cheerleaders, majorettes, the band marching through.

The clubs, the student council,
the editors,
The chaplains, the presidents,
the managers.

The ACORN, the Hi-Lites,
the Key Club Book,
Class Day, Maroon and Gold Day,
the trip we seniors took.

The Junior-Senior Prom,
choir, the Senior Play,
The homework, the exams, graduation in May.

The caps, the gowns,
our new life beginning,
From Harding High, our Alma Mater, memories . . . unending.

HONORABLE MENTION ALL-AMERICAN

GARY WHITLEY

The Rams went into their first game with a slight shade of green in their backfield, but that was where the green ripened. The Rams beat powerful Wilmington, 24-14. In the next game the Rams were slowed down by a surprising East Mecklenburg team, but Harding regained form and won 26-6. The Rams put a crunching ground attack in bowling over North Mecklenburg 40-0. Next came a big upset as the Myers Park boys whipped our Rams 21-7 for the first time since the conference was formed. The Harding team, humiliated the week before, pounced on a powerful Parker High team from Greenville, South Carolina and emerged victorious by the score of 20-6. The North Carolina School for the Deaf fell under Harding's still angry football team 39-19. Harding still not satisfied, rolled over West, 45-6. In their next outing, the Rams were downed 54-7 by a very strong Albemarle team. The next week Harding fell again to a strong and fast Lancaster team 7-6. By this time the Rams felt that it was time to bounce back, and bounce back they did. Central fell by the greatest margin a Harding team has ever beaten the Wildcats, 39-13.

SUTTLE SWIMMING POOL AND COUNTRY CLUB

For members only, except school, church, and civic groups, with proper reservations.

GRADE "A" LUNCHROOM

"We guarantee to teach you to swim or we will gladly refund your money."

Located eight miles west of Charlotte on Wilkinson Blvd., Highway No. 29, one of the most modern and beautiful pools in the United States. Water filtered and purified, changing continually, approximately six times every 24 hours. A popular playground for swimmers and picnickers. Amusements include merry-go-round, swinging chairs, ferris wheel and kiddy auto ride. Swimming, life saving, and water ballet classes offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Suttle, Owners and Operators.

SMITH-REGAL FLYING SERVICE

Congratulates all seniors. We want to present each of you with a free flight at our field. Bring your annual with you. This offer is valid until September first, 1958. If you decide to take pilot training, our equipment and instructors are available for as low as $4.75 per lesson.

Greetings to the Seniors:

You have pursued to the end and mastered the requirements that warrant this honor. You have been victorious while others have failed, and you now enter fields of higher service in the world.

As you leave, may you take with you a love that will dispel hatred, pardon to heal injury, faith to surmount doubt and the light of truth to conquer the darkness of error and falsehood. May God grant that you shall be instruments of peace, placing within your hearts a true sense of the brotherhood of all humanity.

Congratulations and all good wishes,
